

Lawrence Democrat.

FRIDAY, Oct. 31st 1890.

FOR GOVERNOR
JNO P. BUCHANAN

OF RUTHERFORD.

FOR CONGRESS,

COL. N. N. COX.

FOR SENATOR.

J. D. MARTIN.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE FROM LAWRENCE AND WAYNE

T. H. MEREDITH.
OF LAWRENCE.

Vote for Judge Martin for senator.

Let us all stand by Tom Meredith to a man.

See that Martin and Meredith are both on your ticket.

Vote for T. H. Meredith and let us elect a man who can and will fitly and intelligently represent us.

Judge Martin, our candidate for senator, is a man in every way worthy of your support. Vote for him.

Vote the whole ticket. Don't scratch; it is the worst kind of policy and may result in the defeat of one of our candidates.

Dr. R. H. Harvey was honored with the Chairmanship of the 7th cong. dist. convention, and he made a good one.

Don't fail to speak a good word for T. H. Meredith. He has worked for Lawrence county's best interests all along the line and we owe him his election.

We end out with this issue as a supplement Mr. Carlisle's speech against the McKinley Bill. The speech was furnished us by Jno. B. Kennedy and we know our readers will thank him. Let every one read it from end to end for it concerns every individual in this country. Read it and see how under the guise of protection the republican party is robbing the people of this land.

After an unprecedented struggle Col. N. N. Cox. was nominated for Congress in the 7th. district last Friday night at Franklin. What ever of differences may have existed between democrats it is no time now to stop and quarrel. Let us pocket all these and work for Col. Cox's election. One thing we may be sure of—he is a democrat all wool and a yard wide. The election is on us and we cannot afford to lie idle. The force Bill and other iniquitous legislation demands strong work at our hands. Work for Cox.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 7TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The convention of the Democrats of the 7th Congressional District, which met in Franklin on Oct. 23, 1890, selected as the nominee of the party for Congress from this district Col. N. N. Cox, of Williamson County.

The time from now to the election which occurs on Nov. 4th, is so short that the necessity for all Democrats to bestir themselves in the interest of the party is pre-eminent.

In the interest of harmony and Democratic success, your committee appeals with confidence to the patriotism and democracy of all Democrats in the district, to lay aside for the present, at least any and all prejudices or feelings that may have been engendered during the heated contest through which we have passed, and to unite our forces solidly against the common enemy.

While Col. Cox may not have been the choice of some of you, he is now the standard bearer of the Democracy, and let us, one and all, like true Democrats, rally to his support, as we thereby do service to the grand old party to which we have pledged allegiance.

The Committee have reliable information that money has been sent to this District by the National Republican Committee to be used for the purpose of electing a Republican Congressman. And whatever your differences may have been, we feel that you will bury them rather than be subjected to the humiliation of having, particularly in these troublesome times, a Republican Congressman from the 7th District.

ELECTION LAWS.

In this connection, we call your attention and that of the proper authorities, to chapter 218, page 437, of the Acts of Tennessee of 1889, known as the Lea Bill.

This act provides for the appointment by the County Court of six inspectors or judges for each voting place to superintend the election of members of Congress and three for the election of Governor and members of the General Assembly.

If the County Court in any instance has failed to make these appointments, or any person appointed, shall refuse to serve, then it becomes the duty of the Sheriff, with the advice of three Justices, or if none be present, three respectable freeholders to appoint said inspectors or judges shall provide two ballot boxes in which the ballots are to be deposited, one for members of Congress and the other for Governor and members of the General Assembly, there being three of the inspectors or judges in charge of each of the ballot boxes.

When the elections should be held in a house, then ballot boxes should be kept and separate elections held in different rooms; or if not convenient to hold them in different rooms, then in different houses not less than one hundred feet of each other, and not further apart than two hundred feet.

If the election is held out of a building then the ballot boxes shall not be nearer together than one hundred feet nor further apart than two hundred feet.

The election at each ballot box will be governed by the same rules and regulations we have heretofore had in elections; the judges and inspectors for each having separate clerks and making separate returns.

This, of course, necessitates separate tickets, one for members of Congress and one for Governor and members of the general assembly.

The committee urge upon the proper authorities that the requirements of this law be fully complied with in order that there may be no comparison or irregularities in the election.

Some small errors in the original Act of 1889 on correction in an Act passed by the extra session of 1890 chapter 23, page 43 of the Acts of said extra session.

We again urge upon you, one and all to make it a special business to try to see that a full vote is polled in both of the boxes, that we may have in the counties districts and whole state a complete Democratic victory from one end of the ticket to the other.

WM A STEWART, Chairman
Dem. Ex. Com 7th Dist.

THE EVENING HERALD

10 CENTS PER WEEK, OR 4.50 PER ANNUM.

The Herald Company makes, at the outset, no boasts of what it will do—it expects to win support through merit. It will have "no ax to grind" or private interest to guard; it will advocate Democracy, pure and simple, but will not play the role of party organ. It believes that it will supply a long felt want, and fill a field long unoccupied in this city. Its first aim and highest ambition will be to actively aid in upbuilding the material interest of our city and State. It will endeavor to issue a clean, newspaper, one that may safely enter any home in the land. It aims and hopes to win the friendship of the public, as on this point it is as sure as death.
